BANKER WANTS TAX LAW REVISED

Otto H. Kahn Declares Business Demands Tax Revision

Excess Profits Tax Must Go—Insists Banker in Testimony

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 21.—Business of the country is demanding and must have revision of the tax laws if it is to continue a healthy growth, Otto H. Kahn, New York banker, told the House Ways and Means Committee today in the course of a statement in which he denounced economic aspects of the treaty of Versailles and declared for a continuation of income surtaxes.

"The excess profits tax 'must go,' Mr. Kahn said, adding while it was theoretically sound its disadvantages outweighed its advantages.

Continuation of the income surtaxes Mr. Kahn explained, was a social and economical necessity but he warned against excessive levies on the higher incomes on the ground they did not produce the maximum of revenue for which they were designed.

He said also he opposed any exemption on income tax provisions. Chairman Forney said under some of the present taxes merchants were adding under the guise of taxes much more to the price of the article than the tax levy justified. He contended this was one of the problems which Congress must solve in revising revenue laws.

Mr. Kahn blames "the present financial turmoil" for the predicament in which the farmers find themselves. He said their condition was not due to financial deflation because "there has not been financial deflation so far."

Taxation, according to Mr. Kahn, was one of the factors bringing about a collapse of the market. He declared it necessary that "we retrace our steps and re-establish a saner and fairer system of taxation without any undue partiality to capital."

Declaring that the rich are "very canny and will protect themselves always," Mr. Kahn said capital should pay its just taxation and a system must be worked out which would compel these taxes to be paid.

Asked regarding recent proposals to tax bank deposits the witness said such a step "would be almost calamitous in its effect."

Was Sailor's First Job And He Wanted Christmas Money

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, December 21.—Examination early today of a wound received by a sailor bandit, who, with three men in army uniform, fought a gun battle last night with a private detective in front of the home of Cyrus H. McCormick, head of the International Harvester Company, proved that his pocketbook containing eight pennies, saved his life.

The force of the bullet was impeded when it struck the pennies, and it lodged in his abdomen.

Roger Gale, the detective stationed at the McCormick home as a guard, was attacked by the quartet. The sailor, who said his name was John Johnson, an apprentice seaman at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, was deserted by his companions when he fell wounded.

NATIVES LEAVING LOST PROVINCES OF CENTRAL POWERS

Budapest (By Mail)—So many thousands of Magyar families and former government officials are pouring into smaller Hungary from lost provinces of Hungary that the government is making every effort to stop it.

Count Paul Teleki, Hungarian premier, has sent a message to the people of these provinces now annexed to Jugoslavia, Rumania or Czecho-Slovakia, saying: "Stick to your post like the Roman sentry and if necessary take the oath of allegiance."

When these refugees first began to arrive in what is now Hungary they were received with all the warm sympathy and kindness which misfortune evokes. Soon, however, the unceasing stream of homeless, penniless refugees caused a serious housing and food crisis in Budapest, besides adding a heavy item to the already insupportable financial burden of the state.

No rooms were available and the refugees were accommodated in railway cars. Forty-five hundred cars already are occupied in this manner and a city of these cars has grown up near the railway station, with its own streets, clergymen, physicians and stores.

Now the government has been compelled to sacrifice both patriotism and charity and ask the refugees to stay home even though their home is under a foreign flag.

The holdup took place on Summit Street, the city's mean business thoroughfare, less than four blocks from police headquarters.

The express company guards were conveying the safe on a wheel barrow to a truck in the rear of the store preparatory to taking it to the union station, a mile away.

MUSKRAT PELTS NOT IN DEMAND

(By Associated Press)
Port Clinton, O., December 16.—The opening of the muskrat season last week failed to witness a frenzied rush of pelt hunters as for the last few seasons. The useful muskrat skin, from which many of milady's fur garments are made, and which when plucked and dyed, become the popular Hudson Seal, has skidded downward greatly in price this year, according to early reports from fur trapping sections of the state, and the trappers are showing apathy in going after the rat pelt.

First quotations from the fur dealers give 25 and 35 cents as the price for early muskrat pelts, the lowest price in years, it is said.

For a great many years, the average price per pelt was around $1.25, and last year as high as $4.60 a pelt was given by fur buyers.

business men of Shanghai and Hongkong, China, after his famous voyage to the Orient in 1853 and 1854, has just been presented to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis by Perry Tiffany of New York, grandson of the Commodore. The candelabra, which has been in the family's possession since Commodore Perry's death in 1858, was given by Mr. Tiffany in memory of his grandfather and his long naval career.

The gift was made by the merchants of the Chinese cities in appreciation of the American naval officer's visit to their country and his efforts to promote friendship between the United States and the Far East. The candelabra is an elaborate affair, consisting of 17 branches with a spread of 38 inches.

AUTHORS SENDING MAN TO CANADA

London, (By Mail)—The committee of management of the Incorporated Society of Authors, Playrights and Composers is sending G. Herbert Thring, the society's secretary on a mission to Canada in connection with the question of colonial and international copyright.

Mr. Thring also hopes to visit the United States. A large amount of property is held by English authors and dramatists and great difficulties that arise from time to time in dealing with United States publishers, managers, editors and agents. Consequently the committee feels that it is essential for some representative of the society to gather information on the spot and to arrange for the efficient conduct of the society's business in protecting the interests of its members.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Dawson of Wythian avenue entertained Friday afternoon in honor of their niece, Miss Melba Godfrey, the party being in honor of Miss Melba's fifteenth birthday anniversary.

Various games were played and beautiful favors given the honor guest.

When refreshments were served the table presented a picture long to be remembered because of its beauty. At each place was a tiny taper held in a crystal candlestick.

The place cards were inscribed with Christmas greetings, thus doing the double service of guiding the guests to their seats and wishing them a bit of Yuletide cheer.

The color scheme of red and green used throughout the house appeared attractively also in the refreshments.

The guest favors were little Christmas baskets filled with nuts. The honor guest received many lovely gifts.

The girls who attended this happy little party were Miss Harriet Rhodrick, Mildred Mitman, Emmy Sollars, Mildred Reed, Dorothy Bolton, Norma Kowall, Mary Elizabeth Casad, Floreta James, Frances Fleming and the honor guest, Miss Melba Godfrey.—Springfield Sun.

The regular meeting of the Westminster Guild on Monday night took the form of a joyous Christmas party in the basement of the First Presbyterian church each member of the society bringing with her a little girl and making it a real children's affair. Forty were present, the youngsters numbering twenty-one.

The big basement presented a radiant Christmas picture decorated with wreaths and garlands, a beautiful Christmas tree bedecked in tinsel and ornaments rising from the center and a Santa Claus adding to the children's delight.

The tree bore a gift for each youngster and one for each Guild member, clever original verses attached to the latter creating additional merriment. Then each child has a whistle, a toy watch and a bag of candy. The little folk were wild with joy and thought they had never had such a party.

Ice Cream, with chocolate dope, and cakes were served and there were all kinds of games, and a peanut hunt, in which Miss Essie Bolton won the prize a big stick of candy.

The committee who so successfully planned and managed the party was comprised of Miss Dorothy Fullerton, Chairman, Misses Esther Leland, Elizabeth Davis and Gretchen Willis.

Washington friends will be interested in the following account of the marriage of Mr. James F. Gaskins of Sabina, as published in the Wilmington News-Journal.

"James F. Gaskins, editor of the Sabina News-Record, was married Saturday at noon, in Hyde Park, Cincinnati, to Mrs. Pearl W. Strause. The bride is a daughter of Jacob Woods, and the Gaskins and Woods families have been intimately acquainted for a number of years.

Mr. Gaskins has been editor of the Sabina paper for over 20 years and for the past two years has been President of the Buckeye Press Association, a State organization of weekly news paper publishers. There is a hint that Mr. and Mrs. Gaskins will defer their honeymoon trip until the last of February, when there is to be an excursion of publishers into the Northwest and Canada, and they will go with numerous friends of the bridegroom on the journey."

Mr. Cary Gidding, of Milledgeville, heads a committee which will sponsor a dance in the town hall at Sabina, Tuesday evening, December twenty-eight at nine o'clock.

Invitations are being issued and it is expected that the attendance will be large. Together with many from this city Wilmington will also be largely represented.

Good music will add its inducements.

WIRELESS PLANTS TO AID THE POLICE NABBING BANDITS

(By Associated Press)

Columbus, Ohio, December 16.—Police headquarters in all large Ohio cities will be equipped with wireless out fits for the apprehension of bank bandits, if a plan proposed by Patrolman Windom of the local police force, and being considered by Safety Director McCune is adopted.

McCune points out that because Ohio has no state constabulary and as rural banks are virtually unprotected, the plan ought also receive the support of smaller towns. He asserted that the installation of wireless outfits would not entail an exorbitant cost because of good results that would obtain.

McCune estimated that towns within a range of 200 miles of one where there was wireless equipment could be notified almost instantly in case of a robbery.

BEAUTIFUL SERVICES HELD AT THE HOME

Honoring the memory of the late Hon. Horace L. Hadley beautifully impressive services were held at the home in South Fayette street, Monday afternoon at three o'clock, preceding the placing of all that was mortal in the mausoleum of the Washington cemetery.

The home was filled with special friends and neighbors, the Veterans of the G. A. R. and Ladies of the Circle, and members of the Fayette County Bar. The B. H. Millikan Post and its Auxiliary Corps conducted their ritualistic services before the officiating minister, Rev. J. L. McWilliams, of Wilmington, took charge.

Deeply saddened by the loss of their comrade, the eighth that has been called from its ranks this year, the veterans participated in the brief service conducted by Post Commander I. N. Rowe, comrades Frank M. Allen, John Nier, Jos. N. Willson, Merritt Sturgeon, W. D. Blakemore, Jacob Cockerill.

The Circle's flag service, accompanied by the placing of the flag upon the loyal soldier's breast, was in charge of Mrs. Mary Millikan, President, Mrs. J. F. Dennis and Mrs. John Nier.

Rev. McWilliams spoke briefly, his remarks comforting and full of beauty and appropriate to the Christmas season. The minister also read the twenty-third Psalm and a favorite hymn.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. George Jackson, Austin F. Hopkins, A. J. Walker, James Green, Howard Engle, Erk Edwards.

There were beautiful floral remembrances, including special designs from the Fayette County Bar, the I. O. O. F. and a Presbyterian Sunday School Class.

COFFIN ROBBED OF FINE JEWELS

Marburg, Jugo-Slavia. (By Mail)—The wonderful coffin of St. Elizabeth in the church of that name, has been robbed of many of its finest jewels. Twelve very large pearls and 193 precious stones of great value were pried from encrustation. Many valuable robes also were stolen.

In life, St. Elisabeth was the Countess von Thuringen von Wartburg and was well known for her charities. Against the will of her husband, it was her custom to slip from the castle Wartburg and carry food to the poor of the town. The legend goes that on one occasion he caught her bearing a great basket and demanded to see its contents. The frightened lady lifted the cover, but instead of the bread and meat she had placed there it was filled with beautiful roses.

Get Useful Gifts for "HIM" at a Man's Store!

Careful preparations and close touch with the market has enabled us to adequately equip ourselves to serve those who want new clothes this month, or have men to remember for Christmas. Here is a store that is full of just those things well dressed men want. The exacting quality and completeness of our stocks and our steadfast policy of giving our customers the advantage of lower markets, promises big possibilities for men and those seeking gifts for men.

Shirts

You can't go wrong in choosing shirts. Even if everybody else gave him shirts it would still be all right. He can't get too many as long as the shirts are good, and these are mighty fine.

Put in a Tie

When you make up his Christmas package, slip in one of these ties. It will make your remembrance just that much better and bigger. Besides he'll like the idea; and he'll like the tie. Good dressers are buying these ties every day. They are great values.

Give Hosiery

Choosing hosiery is an easy way to solve a man's gift problem, and a mighty good way. Maybe you have given him hosiery before. That doesn't matter. He needs more all the time, and it's one of the few things that he'd rather get than bother buying for himself.

MR. AND MRS. J. D. MACE TO CELEBRATE
SIXTY-NINTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. J. D. MACE

An extraordinary event will occur in this city Wednesday when Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mace, of North street, will celebrate the sixty-ninth anniversary of their marriage. They are believed to be the longest wedded of any couple in Ohio if not in the United States.

Mr. Mace, if he lives until the 20th day of next April will be 89 years old. Mrs. Mace was 89 on the 20th day of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Mace recently noticed a newspaper article in which Dr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Moore, Washington, D. C., claim the honor of having been united in the bonds of matrimony longer than any one else; the Dr. and his wife celebrated their sixty-eight wedding anniversary a short time ago. Mr. and Mrs. Mace have that record bested many months.

The ceremony which united Mr. and Mrs. Mace took place in Chillicothe, December 22, 1851, and was performed by Squire Bunn.

Of the forty people who attended the wedding ceremony not one is living today. The wedding was held in the old Methodist Church. Not only the relatives and a few close friends of the couple attended but all the neighbors were also invited.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mace are in good health and possess every faculty. In their home on South North street they while away the hours in constant companionship.

Of the five children born, three daughters and two sons, all are living: Mrs. Frank James of this city; Miss Ethel, and Miss Grace, at home; J. W. Mace of Mt. Sterling; and B. C. Mace, of this city.

MANY RICH JEWS
ARE KIDNAPPED
AROUND BUDAPEST

Budapest, (By Mail)—Mysterious kidnapping of rich Jews continues here and the police seem unable to end it or to detect the criminals.

Recently three wine merchants who had gone to the country disappeared. The police followed their tracks to the lake Balaton, where the water washed ashore a boat, in which the hats of the merchants were found. All further trace was lost and their fate still is unknown, although there is every indication of murder.

The case of Jacob Reissman, a rich piano manufacturer, belongs to the same category. Reissman was carried away from his home in Budapest by three men, who pretended to be detectives of the military police. Reissman vanished and with him the contents of his safe. It is considered certain that the unfortunate manufacturer was robbed and killed although neither the perpetrators nor the body of the victim were found.

NEW LANGUAGE
LOST MUCH GROUND

The Hague (By Mail)—Esperanto, the language which its advocates hoped to make a world-wide tongue, is now beginning to make up the loss in prestige it suffered in the war according to J. Issbrucker, president of the Dutch Esperanto society and one of the international committee-men charged by Universal Esperanto Association to bring all Esperanto organizations under one general head.

The "Universal Esperanto Association" at its international convention in Hague last August, voted to seek combination with "Central Office" and other similar organizations, in an effort to make the 1921 convention to be held at Prague, Czech-Slovakia the greatest gathering of international language enthusiasts in history. "Although Esperanto suffered during the war, the language showed its usefulness in prison camps and hospitals," Issbrucker said. "Now, it is making great headway, as it is taught in the public schools in Czech-Slovakia, and to some extent in Spain, Italy and Holland. The Bohemian

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

"The Ford Coupe"

Here is one of the most useful of all closed cars. Specifically so when not more than two or three are to be accommodated with reliable car service. The Ford Coupe is a mighty cosy car, in that it is absolutely water-tight, at the same time with its sliding plate glass windows you can have an open car, to all intents and purposes, in a couple of minutes. So it doesn't make any difference what the weather may be, rain or shine, summer or winter, in the Ford Coupe you have an enclosed car of comfort and service. What more do you want?

It has proven particularly a valuable car for traveling salesmen, physicians, engineers, architects, and others who have much out-of-door work all the year around. We have never been able to fully meet all demands for the Ford Coupe, but with the increased producing capacities of the factory we are now able to make reasonably prompt deliveries. Yet we urge you to leave your order with as little delay as possible—our allotment is limited.

TOLEDO ALIVE

WITH "SOFT DRINK"

Toledo, Ohio—Toledo has a soft drink oasis of remarkable proportions according to a report filed by investigators in the employ of Safety Director George P. Greenhalgh. The report shows that there are no less than 988 soft drink dispensaries in the city.

The report further asserts that a great many proprietors of the soft drink parlors don't confine their activities to handing out pop and such mild drinks, but frequently do a little bootlegging on the side. Council is urged to take action.

MORE THAN EIGHTY STILL BIG POWER

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, (By Mail)—Although women now vote in Germany, Minna Cauer, who since 1848 has been a worker for woman's suffrage here, still is active and intensely interested in politics notwithstanding that she has just passed her 80th birthday.

Frau Cauer believes that there still is much work to be done to bring about "the complete democracy," in which women must share equally with men.

Frau Cauer was one of the signers calling the first convention of the Democratic Party in Germany in 1894. She is a member of that party and organized a campaign to obtain suffrage for women. When seven years old she carried a flag at the head of a demonstration demanding the vote for women.

IS NOW FEELING BETTER THAN HE HAS FOR YEARS

The "Flu" left him in poor health. Lost weight and his head ached

"I suffered from the effects of an attack of the influenza which I had in September 1918. The symptoms were nervousness which effected my stomach and an aching between my shoulders. Pain in the cords of my neck, continual headache in the back of my head and neck, and I lost weight continually dropping from 178 pounds to 135 pounds, though I was under treatment of a very good physician. I thought I was all-in," declared Mr. Harmon whose address is given below.

"I was discouraged and ready to quit when a relative asked me to try Earle's Hypo-Cod and I began to eat better and ate anything I wanted. Although working everyday I began to gain and now I am feeling fine I sleep good and in fact I am feeling better than I have for years. Thanks to Hypo-Cod," continued Mr. P. F. Harmon, S. and E. Engineers, 32 Broughton Ave., Mansfield, Ohio.

Thousands of people during the influenza epidemic and afterwards took Earle's Hypo-Cod to build them up, drive away their cough, aches and pains, and to fortify their system against complications that were so apt to attack them while their system was in a run-down and weakened condition. If you are not in perfect health drop in at the drug store tonight and take home a bottle of Hypo-Cod that thousands recommend, that druggists, chemists and experts assert is the most powerful alternative, digestive tonic of its kind made. You will be delighted with its pleasant taste.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by all good druggists and the leading druggists in all nearby towns.—Advt.

CURT NOTES ARE EXCHANGED OVER UNUSUAL ACTION

(By Associated Press)

Tegucigalpa, Honduras, (By Mail)—Some curt and not very cordial notes have been exchanged between representatives of the British and Costa Rican governments over a law recently passed by Costa Rica annulling all international transactions by the previous administration of President Tinoco.

This law rescinds an oil concession given to British interest affects certain arrangements between the Tinoco government and the Costa Rican branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, and affects some American interests, including the Sinclair syndicate which had obtained certain oil rights under the Tinoco administration.

The British government filed a strong protest with the government of Costa Rica, refusing to abide by the law. To this Costa Rica replied that it would not allow a foreign power to interfere with its internal legislation. Great Britain then sent its minister from Panama to Costa Rica, personally, to settle the dispute.

As a consequence, the Costa Rican press is bitter against the British claims and much anxiety exists there at the probable outcome.

DEALERS THREATEN TO CLOSE DOORS

(By Associated Press)

Buenos Aires, (By Mail)—Wholesale and retail dealers in liquor in the province of Cordoba threaten to close their places of business if a recent law passed by the provincial government imposing increased taxes on alcoholic drinks is not repealed.

The law passed by the Cordoba legislature was intended not alone as a source of revenue but as a move to restrict the liquor traffic. Furthermore the provincial government has declared that if the new tax is resisted by the dealers, it will present to the legislature a bill providing complete prohibition of consumption of alcohol in the province.

A Difficult Job

Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin seems to have accepted seriously the campaign promise that liberty bonds should be kept at par by the government. At least one is justified in suspecting that from the fact that he has introduced in the Senate a bill which has that as its purpose.

His plan is to have the government constantly exchanging outstanding bonds for bonds drawing a higher rate of interest. The success of that plan is very questionable. On first thought it would seem that under such a plan the government would be compelled to bid against every wild cat stock making its appearance on the market. Then too it is exceedingly doubtful if, even under the conditions, there would not always be weak minded individuals who would insist on trading good bonds for something of little or no value.

There always have been that kind of people running at large and there will be that kind for some years to come, judging from present indications.

The liberty bonds are good now, the best and safest investment in the world. Just how the Senate can legislate to prevent people who prefer securities of doubtful value from disposing of their bonds for less than they are worth is not clear at this time.

Soft Pedal, Please

The overwhelming number of the people of America are disgusted and sick and tired of reading about "Jake" Hamon and Clara Smith, the victim and slayer, in the Ardmore, Oklahoma murder, made sensational and mysterious by sensational newspapers and news writers.

There is, probably, nothing in the killing of Hamon to warrant the columns of stuff that have been written about it and the practice of "writing up" crimes as has been done in the Hamon case is one of the factors contributing to the crime wave which is right now menacing society.

The published statements of Hamon's career show him to have been nothing more than a frontier ruffian devoid of normal morals and mental equipment, who acquired riches by lucky oil strikes.

He lived the life, according to reports, that would be expected of a man of his coarse fibre and met his end as the culmination of a drunken brawl with the woman for whom he had deserted his family.

There are, unfortunately, scores of "Jake" Hamon cases occurring throughout the nation every month and the least said about them in the newspapers the better.

The Ghosts Speak

City officials are quick to announce that they are not responsible for the lightless street intersection standards in the business sections. All of which is proper enough and commendable too. No one can blame the city officials for making haste to clear themselves for blame for conditions which can have no justification.

According to the statement of the officials the service director on December 7th signed a contract, or an authorization rather, to the Gas and Electric Company in which that company was "authorized and instructed" to "connect up" the new street intersection standards.

The service director states that now since he signed that authorization, dictated by the light company there are some technical objections being raised and, until they are settled the work is not done.

Well, the people are not so much interested in placing the blame for conditions, although it should not be placed wrongfully, as they are in the fact that these gloomy ghosts of what might have been long ago and what should be now, still stand in an imposing line through the center of the main business street of the city.

It does seem strange that so simple a matter as getting lights placed on the street intersection standards should turn out to be a bigger task than the united efforts of city officials and the Gas and Electric Company can accomplish.

With the standards placed and wired, with the conduits laid and everything, practically, ready for the current it seems impossible to believe that the city and the utility company can't get together and start the current flowing.

That seems to be the case, however.

POETRY FOR TODAY

AT CHRISTMAS TIME

The little noises of the night
Keep watch with me, while I awake,
Lie longing, vainly, for my right—
A young son's loving hand to take.

A creaking board, as if the feet
Of my dear Boy came back to me,
To comfort me, who cannot meet
His soul until my own is free.

The dropping of a burning coal,
Where the low fire sends forth a glow
Of genial warmth throughout the whole
Dim, quiet room. Ah, does he know?

The cracking of the wicker chair,
Where he would sit, while I, in bed,
Would listen to him talking there—
Of things he hoped—Now he is dead!

His old dog whimpers in his sleep,
As if he dreamt of him he knew
And loved, while I lie here and weep
The lonely, wakeful hours through.

For Christmas time is here again—
But Christ's own Mother shares my pain!

CONGRESS NOW IS CONSIDERING REORGANIZATION OF THE CABINET

Regrouping of Government Bureaus May be Authorized.

A New Department of Public Welfare May be Legislated

If So Possibility That a Woman Will be Member of Cabinet

BY MARK SULLIVAN
(Copyright 1920)

Washington, December 21.—Senator Harding has just given strong color to the assumption that there is to be a new department in the cabinet, and that a woman may be chosen to head it.

In this campaign, as well as during the past week, Senator Harding laid emphasis on the desirability of a department of public welfare. If that is to come about, it follows that there will also come about a reorganization of the cabinet, which will include the disappearance of the department of the interior and the creation of not only a new department of public welfare, but also a new department of public works.

For this reorganization of the cabinet, more than one bill is already pending in congress. These bills vary in their details, but, generally speaking, they look not only to the suppression of one old department and the creation of two new ones, but to a radical rearrangement of bureaus in all the departments of the cabinet.

Regrouping for Efficiency

The plan is to take out of the existing departments several bureaus which are incongruously placed and to arrange them on a more logical basis. It would put into the new department of public welfare all the humanitarian functions of the Government. It would for example, take the bureau of public health out of the treasury department, and the children's bureau out of the department of labor.

On the other hand for the new department of public works the plan takes the improvement of rivers and harbors out of the department of war, the forest service out of the department of agriculture, and the office of supervising architect out of the Treasury Department. In the existing division of bureaus, it is a grotesque arrival of custom that the matter of a new post office building should be one of the duties of the secretary of the treasury, while the care of the Washington monument is one of the duties of the department of war.

If these changes are to be made at all it will be easier to make them now, at a time when old officials are going out and new ones coming in, than to make them after the new administration has got under way and after new officials have acquired prerogatives which in human nature they might be reluctant to give up. When the old department of commerce and labor was divided into two separate departments the work was done just at the close of the Taft administration, so that the Wilson administration came in with the slate clean in this respect. Present Congress May Do the Trick. Speaker Gillett has just appointed a committee to consider the various bills offered in the present congress for this reorganization and redistribution of government bureaus. Whether the work will be completed in time to make this reorganization before the beginning of Mr. Harding's Administration only time will tell.

It will be most desirable to have it done and out of the way and let the new president start off by appointing eleven cabinet members instead of ten. If it waits until the new administration is under way the new cabinet members will have acquired pride of possession and other attachments which will make the change more difficult.

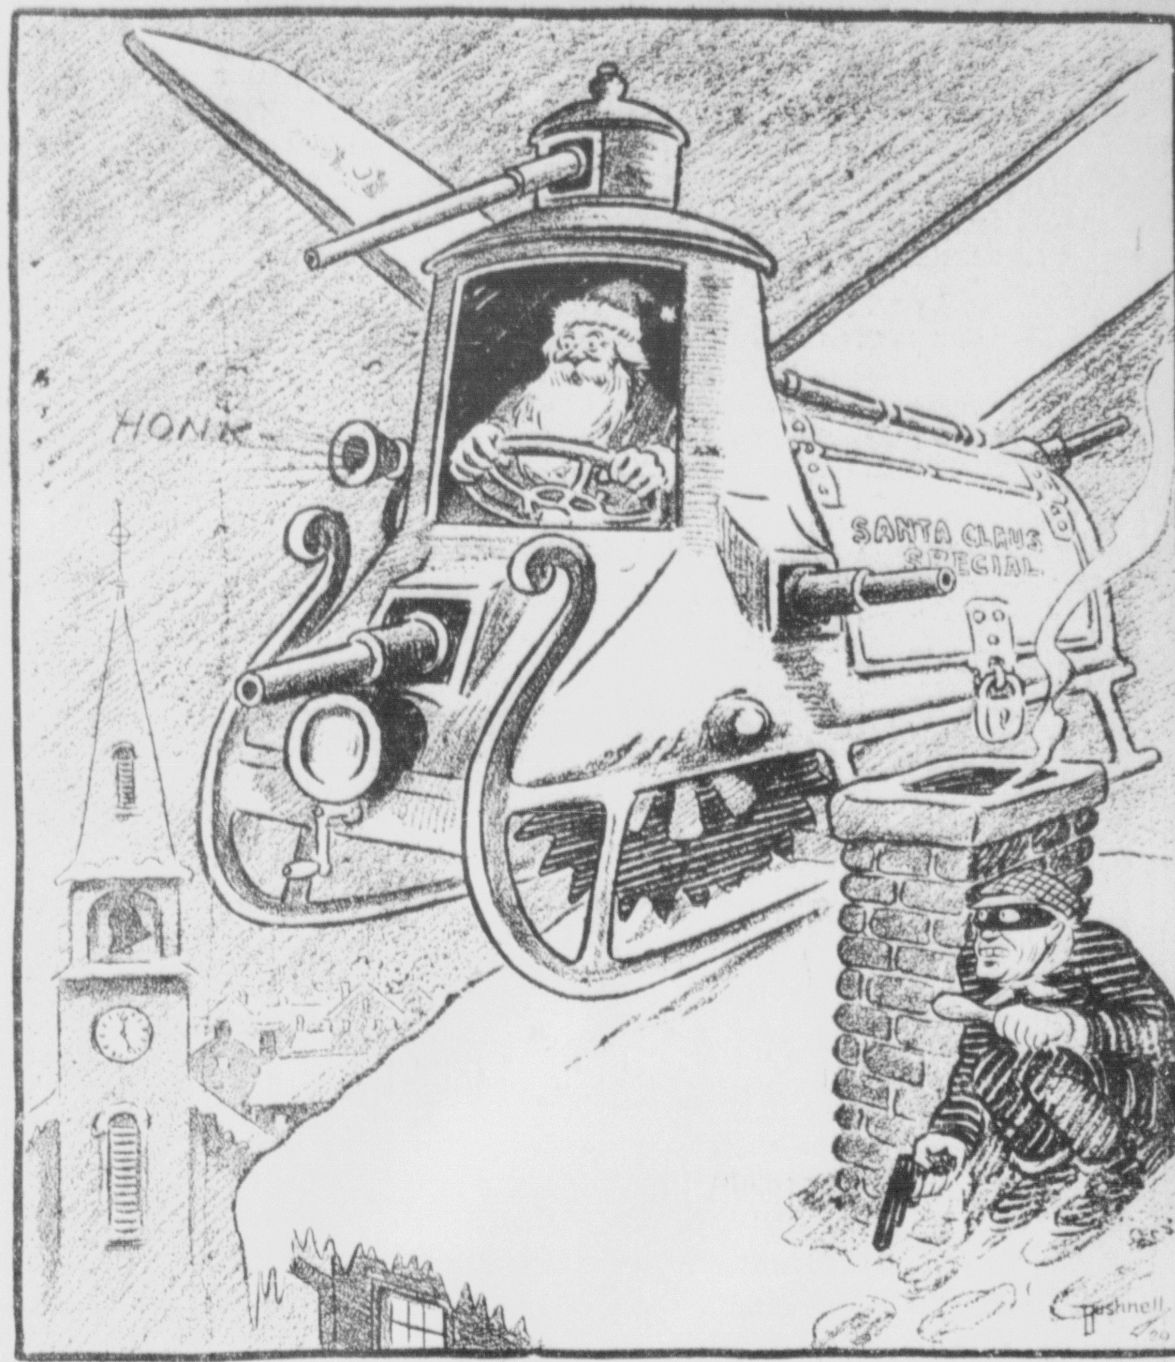

It is a common assumption that if the change is made, the head of the new department of public welfare should be a woman. On somewhat better grounds it is assumed that Mr. Hoover would be offered the position of head of the new department of public works.

In fact even if the change is not made, it is believed that Mr. Hoover will be offered the post of secretary of the interior. In a way, these two posts coincide. The intention of the plan for the creation of the new department of public works includes the purpose of abolishing the department of the interior.

WANTS ALLIANCE WITH ENGLAND

(By Associated Press)

Tokio, (By Mail)—Baron Sakamoto, a member of the House of Peers, advocates renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance and insists on the removal of the clause which exempts Great Britain from any obligations to Japan in the event of a dispute with America.

Baron Sakamoto points out that this exemption clause has been a dead letter for the last 10 years.

The Baron argues that the clause is against the spirit of Article X of the League Covenant which places an equal obligation upon each member of the League of Nations in respect of mutual defence against territorial aggression.

DEAR PETEY:

Best you a house and let you'd stay in W-S a month if you ever got to know folks here like I have. Between business and Reynolds factories and a bully time—well my date book has been bubbling over! And, I'm still running into facts that would stagger even your imagination, old football, with all your kick!

Pete, take it straight from government figures direct to you, that every work day in the week R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. buys from our "Uncle Sam" enough revenue stamps to pay for a duplicate of the handsome new Winston-Salem post office building! Ever hear of such a thing?

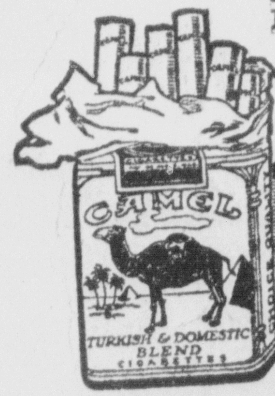

And, if you want to get an eyeful of an army of more than 15,000 people, be down in the Reynolds factory district when the whistles blow! Never saw such a cigarette firing-up time in my life!

Peter, everytime you light a Camel in the future, call back on what I've slipped you about Camels — absolutely, the greatest cigarette at any price—for quality, for refreshing flavor, for mellow mild body, for freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or odor! It's worth the busiest smoker's time to compare Camels with any cigarette in the world! Camels are simply a revelation! You know that.

I'll open my eyes in Atlanta tomorrow! In the meantime here's a wad of best wishes I have in stock!

Yours

Shorty.

SMASHED WINDOW WHERE HUGE GEM WAS ON DISPLAY

(By Associated Press)

Paris. (By Mail)—An elderly man, well dressed and of distinguished appearance smashed the window of one of the most fashionable jewelry shops in Paris on the rue Saint Honore yesterday with his heavy gold-headed cane. He made no attempt to gather in any of the gems. An angry crowd gathered in a few seconds and surrounded the man while the shop proprietor went for a gendarme.

"Stand back!" shouted the old man swinging his cane. "This is the man you should lynch," pointing to the sign on the door of the shop, bearing the proprietor's name. "It is immoral in these times of stress and misery to expose in a window such articles for sale."

"There is the cause of all the trouble," he ended, pointing to an enormous diamond, which still remained in the window. "Look at the price tag on it." They did. The tag bore the words "Price: one million francs."

As the proprietor and a gendarme came into view the crowd opened up and the elderly gentleman vanished.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC IN SONG SERVICE DRAWS CROWDS

Two of the city churches, Grace M. E. and the First Presbyterian, presented on Sunday night, Christmas services of song that delighted immense audiences.

At Grace Church, filled to the galleries, a very beautiful Christmas program of anthems and solos was presented under the exceptionally able direction of Miss Edith Gardner, chorister, at seven o'clock in the evening.

A choir of thirty, wearing new vestments with distinctive features, framed in a setting of white and green with huge basket of white chrysanthemums foremost in the center, made an imposing appearance, and rendered their numbers splendidly, with fine Christmas spirit. The anthems were buoyant and joyous reaching a glorious climax in Mozart's "Gloria" from 12th Mass, which brought the program to an effective closing.

The incidental solos in the anthems were admirably taken by Miss Jessie Sunkle, Mr. Maynard Craig and Mr. C. S. Haver, and a trio was taken by Misses Ruth Tanquary, Helen Durant and Mabel Sunkle, the fresh young voices very fresh and pretty.

Miss Gardner sang most artistically the beautiful solo "The Advent"—R. Huntington Woodman.

A splendid double quartet, composed of Maynard Craig, Richard Haynes, Gilbert Adams, T. H. Craig, Jr., Martin G. Morris, William Kidd, C. E. Morris, E. H. Bushong contributed a marked number to the program, their tones vigorous and full bodied and bringing out with power the message of the chorus "He Shall Reign Forever."

Miss Light did exceptionally good work at the organ, her prelude "The Heavens Are Declaring"—Beethoven—a particularly effective introduction.

All day the music was fine, with Gounod's anthem, "Praise Ye the Father"—the special morning number.

choir presented to a very large and enthusiastically audience the Christmas Cantata, "The Star of Bethlehem"—F. Flaxington Harker, following an introductory program. The organ prelude—"Folk Song"—Eddy, by Mrs. Ben F. Davis anticipated the Processional—"Hark! The Herald Angles Sing," and the impressive entrance of a very large choir, filling the chancel and making an effective ensemble in their fresh white vestments.

Dr. J. Knox Montgomery, who filled the pulpit for the day, conducted devotionals and made a stirring and forceful little Christmas address.

During the Offertory Misses Gwendolyn and Virginia Baughn sang "Babe Divine"—Warren—their youthful voices very sweet and full of promise.

The Cantata was by a new composer and the style, of a new school, quite different, but full of melodic charm as it poured forth the Christmas message. Under the skillful direction of Miss Ada Woodward the choir had worked very hard and succeeded in rendering the most difficult Cantata attempted in years, very effectively. The music was all the more difficult as the parts ran high, and the fine expression, balance and volume with which it was rendered entitled it to all the praise it received.

The Solo work was very well taken by Mr. C. D. Moorehead, Miss Kibler, Mrs. Harvey, Mr. Kibler, Miss Woodward, Mrs. Burget and Mrs. Hudson, Mr. Paul had especially difficult demands in recitatives, the soprano key high, and met them admirably. The trio "Awake, Awake, Put on Thy Strength," Mrs. Harvey, Miss Kibler and Mr. Kibler was also extremely hard, necessitating both high pitch and restraint in the voice.

Miss Woodward's superbly rendered solo "Fear Not; for Behold" was one of the gems of the Cantata.

The closing chorus "Glory to God in the Highest," was ambitious and brilliant to an unusual degree, the different parts carrying the melody and sustaining in one glorious sweep to the climax.

The organ accompaniment was full of beauty and most artistically rendered by Mrs. Davis. The Organ Interlude—"March of the Magi" brought out the use of the stops effectively and no number of the program was more enjoyed.

In all of her solos Mrs. Davis did exceptionally able work.

Miss Woodward both on her choir leadership and vocal work surpassed herself.

The choir rendered a brilliant anthem in the morning, Mrs. Hugh H. Hudson taking the solo effectively.

XMAS PROGRAM AT MT. OLIVE CHURCH

Special interest attached to the regular Sunday School service of the Mt. Olive church in the attractive Christmas program presented at its close.

Mrs. Charles Engle, Superintendent turned over to Rev. J. F. Henkle, D. D. the management of the program, which had been arranged by herself and Miss Cora Plymire. The scholars did well in pleasing song and recitations appropos to the Christmas season.

At the end of the program the Superintendent gave the children a surprise that almost set them wild with joy. Mrs. Engle is a famous candy maker and she had made delicious home made candy filling forty-five sacks and having plenty in reserve for any extras. In a happy little speech of Christmas cheer she made her treat to the children and was given a round of thanks.

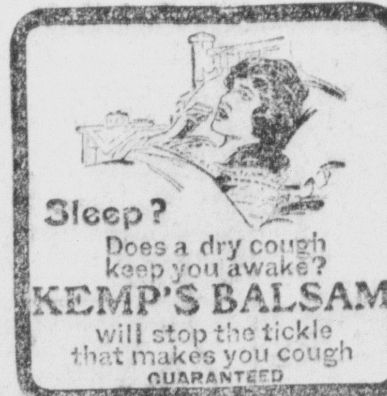

A substantial collection was taken for Christian education.

FIUME AVIATORS DROP PROPAGANDA

(By Associated Press)
Rome. (By Mail)—Aviators from Fiume have been repeatedly allowed recently to fly over Italian towns dropping propaganda leaflets. They have gone so far as to use an Italian aeroplane for refueling their fuel.

One Fiume aviator flew over Parliament buildings and dropped an insulting message calling for the conclusion of the Italian-Yugoslav treaty at Rapallo, afterwards obtaining a supply of gasoline for the return journey to Fiume.

On the journey home the aviator encountered engine trouble and was forced to land in San Marino, the Charming Musical Assistants, With Indian Maid, Present "Different" Program to Lyceum Patrons.

Oyapela (which means "Singing Water") is one of the literary minds of her race, a charming, educated maid, whose ancestors were the bloodthirsty Creek tribesmen.

Oyapela, with Miss Fanny Weinstock, violinist, and Miss Gene Burton, pianist, present a program of irresistible charm. Oyapela translates, in fascinating style, the tribal myths and legends of her race, and chants the weird songs of her people. She corrects the common story-book impression of the Indian and believes her platform work is educational as well as entertaining.

This delightful trio gives a "different" entertainment one you cannot afford to miss. Her talented assistants are distinctive musical artists and the three clever maids give a most delightful program.
